

AUTHOR(S) GUIDELINES

Submission

The official site of the journal is: <https://focjournals.dsust.edu.ng> . From this web address contributors will be able to submit their papers to the journal through a link or alternative email: editorfocjournals@dsust.edu.ng

Articles should be original and not under consideration by any other journal.

All contributions should be submitted via the Delta Journal of Computing, Communications and Media Technologies manuscripts submission platform (<https://focjournals.dsust.edu.ng>). Once a user is logged onto the platform, submissions should be made via the link provided.

Online user guides and access to a helpdesk will be available on the Journal online platform. For every successful submission, the corresponding author receives automatic e-mail of confirmation within 24 working hours.

Authors should prepare and upload at least two files: Title Page and Main Document. Main Document should be an anonymous complete text, in which all information identifying the author(s) should be removed in order to allow anonymous peer review. Title Page may include article's title, author's short biography and contact information.

Please feel free to e-mail us at (editorfocjournals@dsust.edu.ng) if you have any question regarding your submission.

Contributions should be submitted in English Language only. If authors are not native English speakers, they should seek the help of an English editor for language editing prior to submission. Contributions should be formatted as A4 Microsoft Word file (Mac files must be converted), 1.5 line-spacing and with at least 0.7" margins(top/bottom/left/right). All pages, including those containing only diagrams and tables, should be numbered consecutively. Biographical information of a maximum of 80 words should be included on the title page, indicating authors' institutional affiliation, research area, representative writings, phone number and email addresses.

It is the duty of the author to obtain permission to reproduce any illustrations that may be subject to copyright, and sources should be indicated appropriately in the accompanying captions. All submitted articles for publication in DJCCMT convey the opinions, thoughts or and philosophy of the contributor(s).

Papers should be submitted in MS Word format, Times New Roman font, size 12 and 1.5 line spacing. The accepted writing style is APA 7th edition. All articles must have an abstract of not more than 250 words. Abstracts should have not more than five (5) keywords.

The use of figures (diagrams, charts, and graphs) and tables should be kept to a minimum, with only essential data presented. Each should be numbered consecutively, titled, and mentioned in the main text. Tables must contain editable text. Figures should be supplied as separate editable files where possible and not in color except the author is willing to pay additional processing fees. Picture files or jpegs are unsuitable for figures, but can be supplied for photographs if they are of good quality. Mathematical formulations should be kept to a minimum. Equation editing tool should not be used for anything that can simply be typed via the keyboard in MS Word (such as $d^2 + x^1 = y^2$).
